

I'm changing my name

Complete court paperwork:

CM-010
NC-100
NC-110
NC-125
NC-130

Fee waiver form or fee

No letter needed from your doctor

Submit paperwork to the superior civil court in the county of your residence

Once court order received by mail, bring it to the superior civil court to obtain multiple original certified copies of the court order (one for each document you will be changing)

Social Security:

Submit SS-5 and court order to SSA by mail or at the SS office. They may ask for proof of citizenship and/or a photo ID

Driver's license:

Submit court order, current license, and fee to the DMV in person. Complete the e-DL-44 online beforehand or when at the DMV

Passport:

If most recent was less than 1 year ago, submit old passport, new photos, and DS-5504 by mail
If most recent was over 1 year ago but less than 15 years ago, submit old passport, new photos, DS-82, court order, and fee by mail
If most recent was over 15 years ago, submit new photos, DS-11, court order, birth certificate, and fee by mail

Birth Certificate:

If CA born, submit VS-23, court order, copy of old birth certificate to the office of vital records.

Immigration Documents:

Submit a current photo, I-90, court order to USCIS

I'm changing my name and gender marker

Complete court paperwork:

CM-010
NC-200
NC-110
NC-125
NC-230

Fee waiver form or fee

letter from your doctor needed for federal documents

Submit paperwork to the superior civil court in the county of your residence

Once court order received by mail, bring it to the superior civil court to obtain multiple original certified copies of the court order (one for each document you will be changing)

Social Security:

Submit SS-5, court order, and doctor's letter in-person at the SS office. They may ask for proof of citizenship and/or a photo ID

Driver's license:

Submit DL-329S, court order, current license, and fee to the DMV in person. Complete the e-DL-44 online beforehand or when at the DMV

Passport:

Submit new photos, DS-11, court order, birth certificate, doctors letter, and fee in person. You can find a location here: <https://iafdb.travel.state.gov>

Birth Certificate:

If CA born, submit VS-24, court order, copy of old birth certificate, and fee to the office of vital records.
If not CA born, contact the office of vital records of the state in which you were born to find out what the doctor's letter needs to say.

Immigration Documents:

Submit a current photo, I-90, court order, and doctors letter to USCIS